Environmental Science Article Report Form

Find an article from a Journal, Newspaper, Magazine, or Internet (Web Page) that relates to the topics covered in class. Read the article and then complete the following questions. Staple the article (original, photocopy or printed copy) to the back of this form.

Acceptable articles must be current events and within 60 days before the due date. Each submission must be over 300 words, and must relate to the topics covered in class. The article may not be advertisements designed as news articles, opinion pieces, or editorials. Do not use website that are encyclopedic in nature. For example: About.com; Wikipedia; Encyclopedia Britannica are all off limits. Be wary of using government information site unless the article is a genuine press release. You may only use college level appropriate sources: No K-12 sites, sources, stories or magazines designed for children.

1) Identify the article.

Title:
Author:
Date:
Source (or Web Address):

2) In the space below write a summary of the article. Use the other side of this sheet if necessary.

3) List three or four of the article's key facts, arguments, or points.

A)
B)
C)
D)

4) State below why you think this article is important to the class and should be considered by your classmates.